NGOS'S CONGREGANTS AND THEIR CONTRIBUTION

There are currently developed countries and least developed countries in the world, but they all need to share fairly basic assistance to a large number of its citizens.

Currently, seemingly out of the crisis that hit the world, there are major problems for families, individuals and people who are lacking in the most basic needs for survival, and their right to education.

There is something categorically define the needs of a country like the loss of the only food that make up most of the students of the school, with the start of summer vacation, leave the center for the next course. The school is not only in education, but in many cases, provides nutrition for children.

Another requirement is that the current turbulent state of war or requested. Usually all situations really painful cross, because of the lack of resources necessary for the provision of food and water.

We cannot ignore that the event is taking place in Europe and also in the traditional areas of NGO aid's like Africa, South America, Asia and other regions but not least appointed less disadvantaged.

In fact there are countries in Europe are currently in the process of being in a situation of homelessness and extreme poverty me.

Organizations and international institutions known NGOs are hard to meet these needs, but other NGOs, which we call "sodalists" doing important work in places where those in need are forgotten, including Europe.

NGOs are religious orders or laity who in humility, they do work, really important, with few middlemen and low overheads not exceeding 10% of their revenue with a stern and management large voluntary collaborations.

On the other hand, there are NGOs with specific missions, such as the fight against drug abuse or other terrible problems for youth and adults, helping in the training of education that position to a promising future.

But not only that, they also create companies or sectors in which they put forward their "recovered" so no waiters, mechanics, tailors, etc., Which encourage forward such activity.

These NGO's congregants generally funds for the families of students in their schools through voluntary donations, campaigns, awareness, etc., And the proceeds applied in areas where they work to build schools, hospitals or homes. Currently, he is also a great movement that improves FAIR TRADE for employment for thousands of families in the South, obtaining stability in sales.

Until the beginning of the crisis, many of the NGOs had an important contribution sodalists administrations of different governments in its responsibility to cooperate. Unfortunately are down more than 70% due to government austerity plans.

Therefore, a wide range of creativity of those who are responsible for NGOs and voluntary opens (corporate social responsibility, the recruitment of new members, etc.).

Today, alumni of Catholic schools have a very important mission in the schools where we studied and are using that can perform actions or services described above.

Not only from an economic point of view, we also have former students during the traditional holiday months such as July or August, moved to the poorest countries and offer their knowledge for free. Doctors, engineers, educators, animators, professions, nurses and any other action that serves to help is welcome, because it is his help in an attempt to eradicate the problems of today's society, worldwide .

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- Calls upon all Governments and leaders in general, achieve peace, as it is much needed for the development of the company's family.
- According to the principles of universality, equality and proportionality of families, the implementation of an aid to avoid the current family poverty and exclusion is recommended policy.
- Recommend education for all, as necessary to change society, in particular the situation of women in the most radical country.
- Basic needs must be protected by a government of any country in the world. We recommend strengthening national education budgets, health and social support.
- We recommend close monitoring in the distribution of aid must be applied to the widest possible coverage of needs.
- Acknowledge our gratitude to ONG's, as a set of volunteers who do an impeccable job in the service of their fellow men.
