

YEAR 2016

HISTORICAL SUMMARY of OMAEC

1960

During the Congress of Jesuit Alumni, presided by HE Cardinal Bea, SJ, a group of delegates from different confederations of the world meet and the proposal to create an organization that has hosted all former students of all institutions of Catholic education is launched.

This group meets several times, almost once a month, with eleven participants from different religious congregations deciding on the creation of a global organization that welcomes former students regardless of race or religion.

1967

On October 14th, OMAEC, it's officially formed, during the celebration in Rome of the 3rd World Congress of the Lay Apostolate.

The alumni of eleven male and female religious congregations that were the initiators of this constitution are:

1. World Union of veterans of the Society of Jesus.
2. World Confederation of Salesians of Don Bosco
3. Alumni Union of Santo Domingo
4. Union Alumnae of Santa Clotilde
5. Alumni World Confederation HHEECC - La Salle
6. World Association of Alumnae of the Sacred Heart.
7. World Association of Ursulines.
8. Confederation of Former Italian Catholic schools.
9. French Confederation of former students of Catholic education.

Then the Constitutional Assembly took place.

AIMS OF OMAEC (Statutes 2016)

Art. 5 – AIMS

OMAEC is a worldwide organization whose aims are:

- a) ENCOURAGE global commitment and cooperation of Alumni Associations of Catholic Education, to safeguard the dignity and the service of the human community without distinction, according to the principles of Catholic education.
- b) SERVE partner agencies in conducting their own purposes and stimulate relations between them: understanding, mutual support and common actions based on Christian values and charisms that encourage institutions that have educated their members. (Catholic Colleges and Universities, etc.).
- c) PROMOTE the creation of world organizations of alumni of Institutes of Consecrated Life or diocesan institutes, and the creation of Continental Unions and national federations, where none exist.
- d) PROMOTE global knowledge, affirmation and diffusion of gospel values in education, and particularly freedom of education.
- e) REPRESENT their bodies/organizations in all matters relating to common initiatives at the international level and in particular the United Nations Organization - UN and its agencies.
- f) HOLD permanently worldwide, relations with international organizations that are directly or indirectly interested in educational issues and the promotion of the person.
- g) OPINION on social, cultural, economic and political issues always defending Christian values related to its purposes.

Currently, they have added three important goals, which are not yet included in the regulations, but are a OMAEC service commitment to all people. These objectives are: the family, education and life.

These goals are defended in international forums where OMAEC has official representation.

REFLECTION AND AREAS OF ENGAGEMENT

SOCIAL COMMITMENT

The OMAEC should guide action towards a social commitment to the needy. To this should stimulate the guidelines for its members to enable support programs, training and awareness.

Leader: Hubert Dacosta - Senegal - Vice President

EDUCATION - FAMILY – LIFE

There are three fundamental pillars of our commitment as Christians and thus OMAEC. Supporters of a Catholic education and therefore Gospel values.
The family as a domestic church, an engine of society.
Defenders of Life, a gift from God.

Head: Evangelina García - Argentina - Vice President

THE DIALOGUE INTERRELIGIEUX

The OMAEC wants to advance interreligious dialogue based on knowledge, respect, values and mutual understanding between religions or spiritual movements. Urges action to walk together.

Responsible: Nagy Khoury - Lebanon - Vice President.

STRUCTURAL AREAS

UNAEC - Afrique

This Organization is in constitution phase with participation of the different National Federation and Correspondents named in the zone.

Responsible: Hubert Dacosta - Sénégal - Vice-président

UNAEC - Middle East

Promote the establishment of a regional organization in the Middle East.

Responsible: Nagy Khoury - Lebanon - Vice President.

COORDINATION CORRESPONDENTS

The OMAEC has a growing network of correspondents, who are invited to lead two important aspects:

- a) To publicize the existence of OMAEC in their own country (Episcopal Conference, congregations of religious education, groups of alumni of Catholic education, media, social networks, etc.)
- b) Walk towards the creation of a National Federation of Alumni of Catholic Education

The corresponding coordination of it is animation service, contact, guidance and group actions.

Head: Evangelina García - Argentina - Vice President.

STRATEGIC PLAN

The OMAEC requires a director and a "strategic plan" plan to develop its different terms, with policy targets and the internal behavior, with the possibility of monitoring and evaluation.

Leader: Angel Gudiña - Spain - Vice President.

COORDINATION OF NATIONAL UNIONS

It is an animation and contact service with the various national federations, dialogue facilitation, guidelines, actions and future needs; the promotion of contacts and meetings between them.

Head: Giuseppe Mariano - Italy - Vice-President.

COORDINATION OF GLOBAL UNIONS

It is an entertainment service and contact with the various national federations, dialogue facilitation, guidelines, actions and future needs; the promotion of contacts and meetings between them.

Leader: Angel Gudiña - Spain - Vice President.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Strategic communications services coordinated actions to enhance the image and presence of the OMAEC (policies in the media, marketing, social networks, etc.)

Manager: Alessia Clemente - Italy - President OMAEC YOUNG.

FINANCIAL SECTOR

The OMAEC must strengthen the financial sector through creative strategies that are, transparent and participatory.

Leader: Paul Pied - France - General Treasurer.

OMAEC YOUTH NETWORK

It encourages the participation of young people in OMAEC through member organizations and in coordination with OMAEC YOUTH; each member brings to a "young OMAEC network" young body for online interaction that generates the future and the illusion of participation.

Manager: Alessia Clemente - Italy - President OMAEC YOUNG.
